Dear Mr. Meredith:

Just a note of admiration for your courage in standing firm for your just rights as a human being.

The abominable actions of the people in Mississippi; including those peoples in other sections of the country, is un-

<sup>2</sup> forgivable, they should remember the good Lord created all people equal regardless of color or creed.

I am telling everyone I come in contact to write you and President Kennedy applauding him for his action in this deplorable action of people (whom I incidentally do not consider human beings) against another human being.

Let me say also, you are acting as a perfect gentlemen, which should shame those southerners.

Again congratulations and I know your accomplishment is another step ahead.

Very truly yours
Ern Conrad

P.S. You may use my name if you want to - I happen to be white but am not proud of it at this time.
